

Preparing to study Classical Civilisation A Level

Welcome!

- To a subject that will change how you look at life forever
- To the oldest subject in the Western World
- To Classical Civilisation

Preparation

1. Know your Greek and Roman gods!

If you know them already - that is fantastic! If you are less sure about them there is a colouring in book you can download and enjoy while listening to the Odyssey (see 2). You can additionally read your sibling / someone else's child some of the many Greek Myth books for kids!

2. Listen to Homer's Odyssey (or read it).

You will find a recording of the Odyssey here divided up by its chapters. If you have already read it - it will do you no harm at all to read it again. If you get really excited, see if you can listen to the Iliad as well. Although we won't be studying it, understanding it (or reading Stephen Fry's 'Troy'), will give you a massive boost!

3. Read some historical novels or detective stories based in Ancient Greek or Rome.

For example:

Stephen Fry's Mythos, Heroes, etc.

Mary Renault's The Mask of Apollo

Margaret Atwood's The Penelopiad

Steven Saylor's Roma, etc.

Robert Harris's Cicero Trilogy

4. Watch Professor Michael Scott's documentary: Ancient Greece The Greatest Show on Earth 1 - Democrats and 2 Kings. Make notes on the ideas.

What will I need?

You will need a copy of Homer's Odyssey - the version we will be using will be Homer, 'Odyssey' translated by E. V. Rieu, revised translation by D. C. H. Rieu (Penguin). You can usually get hold of a second hand copy very cheaply. If you have any problem with this, please let me know. The school has funds that may be able to help.

You will need a lever arch folder for all your notes and booklets and I really recommend investing in a set of folder dividers.

You will need file paper or a good notebook for note-taking.

Additional fun...

Watch bits of (it's 11 hours long!) the Discovery Tour for Assassin's Creed Odyssey on YouTube here.

Watch the TED Talk on The Odyssey here.

Watch Overly Sarcastic Productions versions of The Iliad and Odyssey.

Listen to as many episodes of Natalie Haynes Stands Up for the Classics on BBC Sounds as you possibly can.

Any problems, questions or concerns...

Please email me at barnettc@bishopluffa.org.uk

I'm really looking forward to working with you in September!

Chloë Barnett